TRANSLITERATION AND HONORIFIC GUIDE

The transliteration used in our books is to facilitate the pronunciation of Arabic words using Roman script for the ease and convenience of our readers. However, this is not meant to be a substitute for learning to properly read and pronounce Arabic script. Every Muslim should take it upon themselves to learn the rules of tajwīd (proper Qur’ānic recitation) from a qualified teacher.

According to the convention used in our books:

-The Majestic Name, “Allah,” does not take a diacritic.

-The tā marbūtah (ة) that occurs at the end of some Arabic words is generally transliterated into English with an “h” at the end of the word, except when it comes in the names of people in which case it is dropped off.

-Arabic words transliterated into English are italicized except words that have been adopted into the English dictionary, commonly used words, and proper nouns.
